Dr. Zhigang Xie is professor of insurance and actuarial studies at Shanghai University of Finance & Economics (SUFE). He joined SUFE in 1996 after receiving a Ph.D. at the University of Leeds, UK. Since 1997, he has been the program chair of the actuarial studies at SUFE.

Dr. Xie has been the editor for The Actuarial Communications, Journal of Actuarial Committee of Shanghai Insurance Institute, which is the sole actuarial journal in China and has significant influence over the development of Chinese actuarial education, research and profession.

Dr. Xie is a fellow and board member of the China Association of Actuaries (CAA) and is the responsible person for the CAA actuarial exams on the non-life actuarial subjects. He has recently been elected as the board member of China Insurance Institute and editing committee member of The Insurance Studies.

QUESTIONS?
CONTACT: DR. WEILI LU OR REBECCA AVILA  657-278-2045
OR cis@fullerton.edu